ANDERW JOHNSON ON RECONSTRUCTION.

"In calling a convention to restore the State, who shall restore and re-establish it? Shall the man who gave his infigence and his means to destroy the Geverament?" Is he to participate in the great work of recognization? Shall be who brought this misery upon the State be permitted to control its destinies? If this beso, then all this prectous blood of our brave soldlers and officers so freely poured out will have been wantonly spilled, all the glocious victories won by our noble armies will go for naught, and all the battle fields which have been sown with dead heroes during the rebellion will have been made memorial in vain. Why all this carnage and devastation? It was that treason might be put down and traitors punished. Therefore I say that traitors ahall take a back seat in the work of restoration."

"I say that the trailor has ceased to be a citizen; and in joining the rebellion has become a public enemy. Ha forfeited his right to vote with loyal men when he renounced his citizenship and sought to destroy our Government. We say to the most honest and industrious foreigner who comes from Engand and Germany to dwell among us, and to add to the wealth of the country, 'thefore you can be a citizen you must stay here for you can be a citizen you must stay here for five years. If we are so cautious about for-eigners, who voluntarily renounce their homes to live with us, what should we say to the traitor who, although born and reared among us, has raised a paricidal hand against the Government which always protected him? My judgment is that he should be subjected to a severe ordeal before he is re-stored to citizenship."

SUPPLAGE.

EXECUTIVE OFFICE,

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 15, '65.'

Gov. W. L. Sharkey, Jackson, Miss.:

"I am gratified to see that you have organized your Convention without difficulty. I those that without delay your Convention will amend your State constitution, abolishing slavery and denying to all future legislatures the power to legislate that there is property in man; also that they will adopt the amendment to the Constitution of the United States abolishing slavery. If you could extend the elective frunchise to all persons of COLIN who can read the Constitution of the United States in Regular and write their semese, and to all persons of color who own rough a succession of the control of the control of the success of the color States will follow. This you can do with perfect safety, and you thus place the Southern States, in reference to free persons of color, upon the same your Convention will do this, and, as a consequence, the Radicals, who are wild upon negro franchise, will be completely foiled in their attempt to keep the Southern States from renewing their relations to the Union by not accepting their Penators and Representatives."

They are expecting a number of distinguished men to address them, and among the number Gov. Boreman, Senator Willey, the Hon. Mr. Wood-man, and perhaps the Hon. John A.

THE Democrats have divided the Congressional nominations with their new allies, by a uniform rule; they nominate a regular Democrat in every district which they have a hope of carrying, and generously concede the place to the Johnson men where they are sure of being beaten.

WHAT financial views the reconstructed rebels might take in Congress may be inferred from Le Bow's Review, which holds that the war was caused by the North, and that therefore the North alone should pay the debt,

MR. PAUL R. SHIPMAN who was sent Mr. Bingham to Speak at West Liber South near the close of the war for his rebel utterances is to be again connected with the Louisville Journal. Mr. in a highly laudatory and not very modest manner. He also gives us to understand, not directly, that the Journal tired of its off and on course, some-mat tired rd him great brilliancy of intellect in the past and, perhaps, in the present, but the course he has marked out now is not likely, we fear, to make his last years his best ones. The country has noticed for a long time that the Journal was not a reliable paper; that there was a constant falling away from healthy Unionism; a disposition to cater to Kentucky sympathy with the rebellion, and hence this new announcement senior editor that it is to be run still more decidedly in the same direction will take no one by surprise. In saying this we are not unmindful of the great services rendered to the country by the Journal in the early days of the mistake in denouncing the call for 75, 000 men. Since those days it has seemed to be steadily lapsing. All the steps of Lincoln's administration met with opposition from the Journal. They were schieved in spite of such infinences as were exerted by that paper. Kentucky Unionism as represented by the Journal became a byword throughout the country. The course pursued by that ate what it is to-day, in the language of Nasby, a sort of Confederate cross roads. Its sympathies are well illustrated by its denunciations of the Congressional amendment. It tells the ople that " the South is not dupe and fool enough to accept the conditions the Radicals offer." We can tell Mr. Prentice, with all due respect, that not only the South but even great Kentucky nerself will, in the course of no very ong time, become both dupe and fool ough (if thus he chooses to put the case) to accept those conditions. And the authenticity of the news, we shall refrain from extended comment. their acceptance there is "no remission f sins"; no return of rebels to power under this Government; nothing but their present position. It is useless to threaten war unless the South is adcan never shake the unalterable purpose of the loyal States to enforce the Southern rebels shall return again to their former positions. Mr. Prentice, venerable as he is in honors and years, we hope and expect live long enough to see fully verified all that we here predict to him. And he will then see that his present position is another in that series of many false positions he has assumed during the last five years. He should remember the Emanipation proclamation; the bill to enlist colored soldiers; the amendment abolishing slavery, and contrast what the situation a year hence as compared with his position to-day. We devote this much of our time and ace to the new programme of the Journal not because of its individual importance—far from it—but because the paper represents so well all that class who boast of their "Conservative" Unionism—a species of Unionism well shown up in the present status of Kentucky—a Unionism that stood so long as a shield to the rebellion during the war-that swelled our national debt one-half and cost the country at the least one hundred thousand lives.

he said on each occasion with the facts to-day. The contrast thus presented

o his reflection cannot be greater than

It was this "Conservative Unionism" that kept the Confederacy alive for five years—that made it hopeful almost to the last hour—that it relied upon to give way in the darkness of the struggle-that more than once pronounced The streets of our city presented a the war a failure—that now animates scene of excitement and display and strengthens every rebel in the last night, not often witnessed in South—that now controls the executive our midst. The Boys in Blue department of the government at Wash South-that now controls the executive were out in procession with their torches, their lanterns, their fireworks, their wagons, their flags, and their bands of music. The Union people of Harrison county are preparing for a grand rally at the Philadelphia Convention-author of its principles, if it has any—having given way and resumed his position in many like them, all point unerringly to the fact that the ratification of the Amendment is only a question of very short time. Hence the blindness. stupidity and fatality of so-called "Conservative Unionism," that it can not see coming events so plainly indi-cated, but persists, like the Louisville about the South not going to be fool or dupe enough to accept conditions.

In ninety-nine towns in Connecticut, the Republicans have gained nineteen and the Democratic four; and this is what the Democratic papers figure a net gain out of.

In addition, Mr. Bingham is one of a the cacknowledged leaders of the American Congress. powerful and ready debater, and as a thoroughly informed politician. Those who have heard him in times past do not need to be told that he is an orator. He possesses extraordinary powers as a public speaker. As a man he enjoys an enviable personal reputation in all the relations of life. All these circumstances give him the weight of character and commanding influence which he wields among the people of his Congressional district and among his fellowmembers of the national councils at Washington. We esteem it therefore a matter for general con gratulation that we are able to announce that he will speak for us next Saturday afternoon and evening.

Important, if True. We call attention to a Philadelphia dispatch on our first page announcing that President Johnson has formally submitted to his Attorney General progress taken and maintained by Mr. certain questions in regard to the legal ity of the present Congress. It seems he desires to know whether it is "sucha Congress as the Constitution requires: whether "existing circumstance would 'justify the President in sending his next annual message" to it; and whether he would be warranted in takpaper contributed largely to make the ing steps "to secure the assemblage of a onstitutional Congress." If this news is reliable, and we hardly think it is, it is the most momentous tidings we have published at any time during or since the war. It betokens a bold determination on the part of the President to carry into effec his suspected programme of recognizing the rebel States as entitled to representation in Congress without any conditions whatsoever. As such it is well calculated to alarm the people Until, however, we know more about

P.S.-Since writing the above, w have received a dispatch direct from Washington, positively denying that there is any truth whatever in the Philadelphia news. We are glad to be mitted on her own terms. That threat able to send out the contradiction along with the report. We could not believe it true, and we rejoice to be asthe amendment ere sured that it is not. There is, however, something connected with the origination of news, so circumstantial in its details, that is unusual, and that still, notwithstanding the denial of its authenticity, is calculated to leave the mind of the country in a disturbed and doubtful condition. It accords with the distrust and suspicions that Mr. Johnson's late reckless and disgraceful utterances aroused in the minds of all reflecting people.

"What sort of a sermon do you like?" said Dr. Rush to Robert Morris, one day. "I like sir," replied Mr. Morris, "that kind of preaching which drives a mm into the corner of his pew, and makes him think the devil is after him."

THE Georgia papers are discussing the repudiation of the public debt con-tracted before and during the war.
